Networking with the trade experts from Japan, India and Canada

Princeton, NJ – May 16, 2018 – The Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce will once again partner with the Middlesex County Regional Chamber of Commerce for its next multi-Chamber event featuring global business trade experts. The event will take place June 5th, 2018, 5pm-7pm. at the Palace of Asia in Kingston, NJ.

“Commerce & Cocktails: Global Business Networking” will feature trade and commerce experts from Japan, Canada, and India, allowing attendees to interact one on one, getting the answers they need to facilitate their business growth.

“We are thrilled to once again partner again with the Middlesex County Regional Chamber and look forward to offering the business community the opportunity to connect with these specific exports in their fields and countries, furthering the mission to act as a resource for local economic growth,” said Peter Crowley, President & CEO of the Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Attendees will have the opportunity:

- Meet the experts who will help them do business overseas
- Interact with global business experts from Japan, India, and Canada
- Make networking connections with members from different Chambers
- Meet resources from the State and US trade offices

“Along with the multi-Chamber networking opportunity, the program and resources that will be present that evening will be invaluable for all who join and plan to grow their business internationally,” said Lina Llona, President & CEO of the Middlesex County Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Tickets for members of the Princeton Regional Chamber of Commerce and Middlesex County Regional Chamber are $35, and $40 for future members and resource table interaction, hot buffet, and networking. Sponsorships are still available. For more information, contact Gina Guarino, Princeton Regional Chamber, at (609) 924-1776, ext. 108 or gina@princetonchamber.org, or Craig Schlosser, Middlesex Chamber, at 732-745-8090 or craig@mercc.org.
