Global Business Networking with Canada Trade Partners

Princeton, NJ – June 4, 2019—On Monday, June 17th from 5 PM-7PM--Holiday Inn Princeton will feature an opportunity for Business Professionals to connect with New Jersey's Largest Trading Partner, Canada. With 19.8% of Total NJ Exports, Canada more than doubles the second closest Country, Mexico which accounts for 8.3%. "Commerce, Cocktails & Canada: Global Business Networking" will feature representatives from the Canadian Government, Networking, Light Fare and more.

The event is organized through the Global Opportunities Program of the Princeton Mercer Regional Chamber, in partnership with the Middlesex County Regional Chamber of Commerce. The Global Opportunities Program is a resource to companies in the Princeton/Central New Jersey region who currently or plan to do business overseas, and as a resource for international corporations wanting to enter the US market.

Attendees will have access to the below Canadian Trade Experts:

- Mark Scullion, Counsel and Head of Investment at the Canadian Consulate in New York
- Rafael Perez, Ontario International, New York Office
- Laurent Waessa, Commercial Attaché, Quebec Government, New York Office

"We are proud to bring these leaders together to discuss the economic and public policy issues that both business and consumers face in global business," said Peter Crowley, President and CEO of the Princeton Mercer Regional Chamber. "We succeed when we work together, and our Global Opportunities program and partnership with the Middlesex County Regional Chamber is a catalyst for that outcome."

Members of both Chambers receive a $5 discount on their event tickets and Non-Members are welcome to attend as well. For more information and to register please visit PrincetonMercerChamber.org or Mcrcc.org.
